

Richmond University Medical Center

Advanced Eye and Vision Care Services

The health of your eyes has a major impact on every area of your life, from work and education to enjoying time with family and recreation. Richmond University Medical Center is proud to serve Staten Island with a full range of ophthalmology services to promote better vision and eye health.

YOUR SIGHT IS OUR FOCUS

Whether you are experiencing pain, discomfort, or vision issues, or are due for a check up, Richmond University Medical Center is your gateway to advanced ophthalmologic services that allow you to receive expert care close to home.

lateral rectus muscle

ciliary muscle

iris

lens

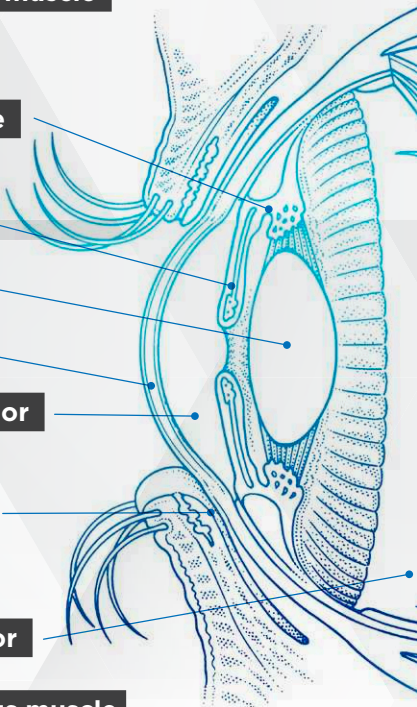

cornea

aqueous humor

conjunctiva

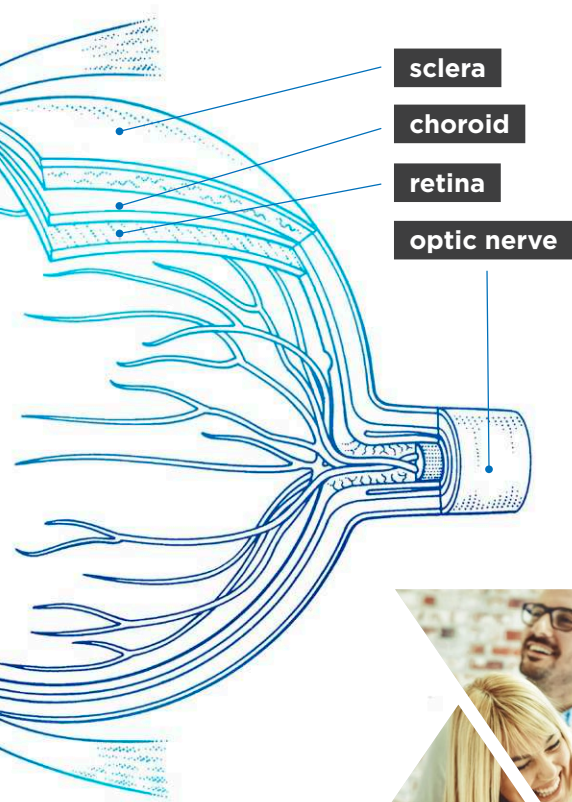

vitrious humor

medial rectus muscle

We specialize in vision and eye care services for children and adults, including:

- ▶ Vision exams
- ▶ Diabetic eye exams
- ▶ Glaucoma screenings
- ▶ Diagnosis of ocular disorders and diseases
- ▶ Management and treatment of macular degeneration, cataracts, glaucoma, and many other conditions

If surgery is needed to improve your vision, our experienced team of specialists can perform advanced, proven-effective procedures, including:

- ▶ Cataract surgery
- ▶ Corneal transplants
- ▶ Strabismus repair
- ▶ Retinal detachment repair
- ▶ Minimally invasive glaucoma stents (MIGS)

Richmond University

Medical Center

Advanced Eye and Vision Care Services

355 Bard Ave, 5th Floor
Staten Island, NY 10310
718-818-4848

rumcsi.org/Ophthalmology

